UDSF proud that Tashkent was chosen to host the above tournament and hope that all participants and guests will enjoy acquaintance with our country with its unique culture and rich history.

Tashkent the capital of a young independent state is the largest city in the region. If Samarqand is known as "The Edem of the East", Bukhara "The Noble", Tashkent today aspires to rank one of the beautiful cities in Central Asia.

Our vision is intended to stir the soul of world: 1st ICSC Asian Team Deaf Chess Championship in Tashkent will use as a catalyst to demonstrably strengthen the Asian Deaf Chess Movement.

Our Championship will inspire young and old Uzbek citizens around the world.

In addition, we inform that there will be Congress for the Asian countries. ICSC President, Mr. Michele Visco will take part in the Congress in Tashkent.

This event will bring the best in sport to our city.

Many countries will be sending their best deaf chess players to perform at the highest levels of chess game.

We hope Tashkent 2011 will be a memorable experience for you all.

Sincerely,

On behalf of the Uzbek Deaf Sport Federation,

Mrs. Dilbar Karimova
Interim/General Secretary
